

Postponement Announcement

Dear Exhibitors, Visitors and Partners,

Due to the sudden and fierce outbreak of the novel corona virus (2019-nCoV), Chinese government has initiated a first-level response to major public health emergencies. Strict measures have been implemented by the central and regional governments to prevent and control the outbreak.

We regret to announce that IE expo China 2020 scheduled on April 21-23, 2020 in Shanghai New International Expo Center, will be postponed.

At this critical moment, it's our priority to protect health, safety and success of our exhibitors, visitors and partners. We will work closely with government authorities to evaluate the situation and find a proper time to reschedule the show date. Further information will be released separately.

Thank you all for your continuous support and we do hope that you will receive this information in time and you are able to make adjustments accordingly.

We are following the current situation very closely and are in contact with the official authorities and venue owners. As soon as a new event date emerges we will inform you immediately. If you have any question, please also feel free to contact us.

We wish you all the best and good health!

Yours sincerely,

Messe Muenchen Zhongmao Co., Ltd.
